WJCS APPOINTS TWO DIRECTORS

Margarita Munoz-Dummit

Westchester Jewish Community Services (WJCS) has announced the appointment of two new members to the executive team: Margarita Munoz-Dummit as chief medical director, and Milagros Rivera as human resources director. Munoz-Dummit has served as a psychiatrist in the WJCS Yonkers and Mount Vernon Family Mental Health Clinics since joining the agency in 1998. She is board certified in psychiatry and neurology as well as child and adolescent psychiatry. She is a recipient of the Westchester County Task Force on Child Abuse and Neglect Award and the Champions for Children Award from Family Ties. She is a graduate of New York Medical College and the Sophie Davis

Milagros Rivera

Program of City College of the City University of New York.

Rivera assumed her position as human resources director at WJCS in April. Prior to that she was director of human resources at Interco America, a manufacturing operation in Congers, where she oversaw all aspects of HR for a staff of 900. Rivera has an MBA from Iona College and a Master of Science degree in organizational management and human resources from Manhattanville College. She is a member of the Society of Human Resource Management.

WJCS is one of the largest non-profit, nonsectarian human services agencies in Westchester, serving 20,000 people annually.
