SANDLER NAMED PRESIDENT OF WJCS BOARD

Neil Sandler, a Westchester Jewish Community Services (WJCS) board member for the past four years and treasurer for the past three years, has been elected president of the board of directors.

"We're delighted that Neil has been selected as president of our board," says Alan Trager, WJCS CEO. "The agency has benefited greatly from Neil's wise counsel and extensive financial background. We look forward to his continuing the excellent stewardship set by his predecessors that has enabled WJCS to serve 20,000 people each year."

Sandler has more than 30 years of experience financing and managing investments in life science and health care companies. He is managing director at Seven Oaks Advisors LLC, and CEO of ClearPath Development Co.

Sandler also is a board member of UJA-Federation of New York and chairs the investment committee at Larchmont Temple. He and his family reside in Mamaroneck.
